Tip of the Week

Finalizing Pending Decisions

The Pilot Parishes are in the final stages of active campaigning. As individual campaigns begin to wrap-up, the most important step is to finalize a decision with those parishioners still considering a pledge.

If you have any remaining pending decisions, work to close those gifts!

For the parishes which have already completed Commitment Weekend, there are still several parishioners who indicated that they are praying about their decision. A phone call to answer any questions can help someone to finalize their decision.

If your parish has not yet had Commitment Weekend, now is the time to make a final push for decisions. Try to complete any outstanding pledges before the appeal in Mass, or emphasize that the donor can come ready with a decision on the final weekend of the campaign.
