Tip of the Week

Setting Deadlines

October has come to an end, and the holidays are quickly approaching. The next several weeks are essential to maintaining campaign momentum before the end of the year. As schedules begin to fill with family plans, vacations and events, one way to ensure timely follow-up is to set a deadline for yourself and the donor.

"Our next campaign committee meeting is this coming Thursday, I would love to be able to report a decision. Could we meet on Tuesday to finalize your decision?"

Aim to have your visits completed before the parish phone-a-thons, or to have a signed card to turn in for each report meeting. Setting deadlines will help maintain a high level of activity to move the campaign forward.
